- Andrea -
Well, this is it.
Kid. She's the end of the road as far as high school is concerned. In us it's been a friendship that's lasted for more like twelve years than four and the influence and impression we have made on one another will stick for a lifetime. I want to thank you more sincerely than words can express for sticking by me when I had no one and for providing the sympathy and comfort that I so desperately needed at times. It hasn't been the best four years of our lives, but one thing is for sure, we'll never forget them and the lessons they have taught us even though memory will reorder them obscure and dim with time. Dedicate your life to the same ideals you have formed in these early years and your won't go wrong, Andy. Just as these words from a pyramid ever widening toward the base, may your life every day widen with new happiness and the fulfillment of dreams. The best of everything to the most loyal and faithful, genuine and sweet girl in the whole town, Merry Johnson
Merry, 1967.

I hope your next four years are as interesting as the past four have been — even (but their impact is greater and more significant. Anyway, good-luck always.
Your father, Lee Smith

Andy-
I hope you are very lucky in the future

Our world is filled with change:

Every time we break a tradition, our lives erupt for a moment. Each departure from the last generation shapes the soul of our generation.

By seeking what we can know and questioning tradition, we affect our world.

Anticipation of the new is evolution to our minds.

Attaining our goals—a time consuming, exhausting, stimulating experience.

Newness excites our imaginations, but we are still bewildered by trying to know what we have never seen.

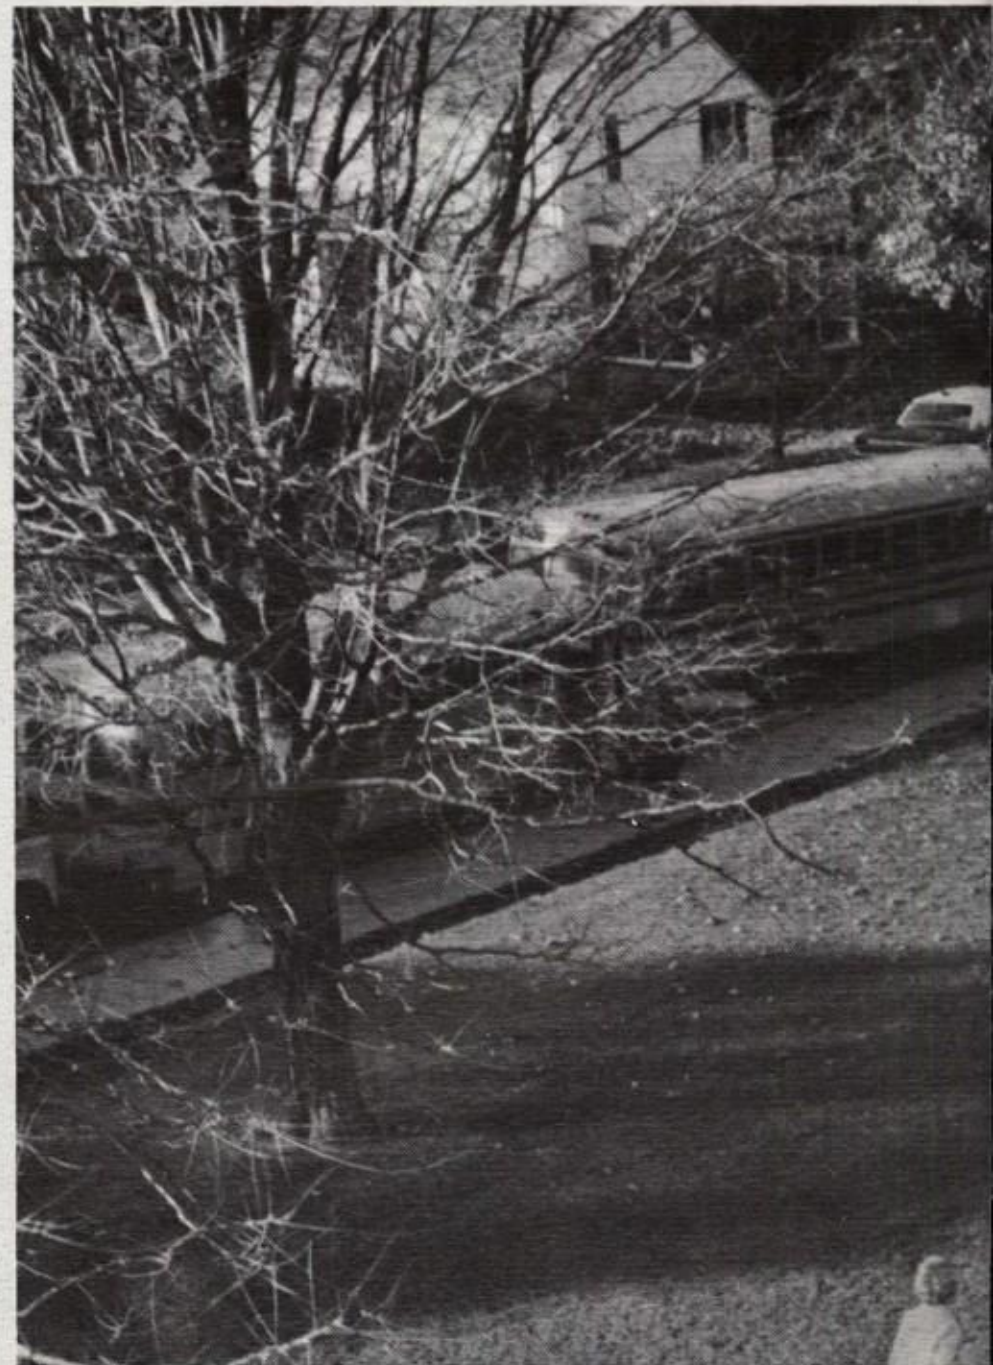

Each day in our life is an upheaval of the child in us to make room for the adult in us to develop.

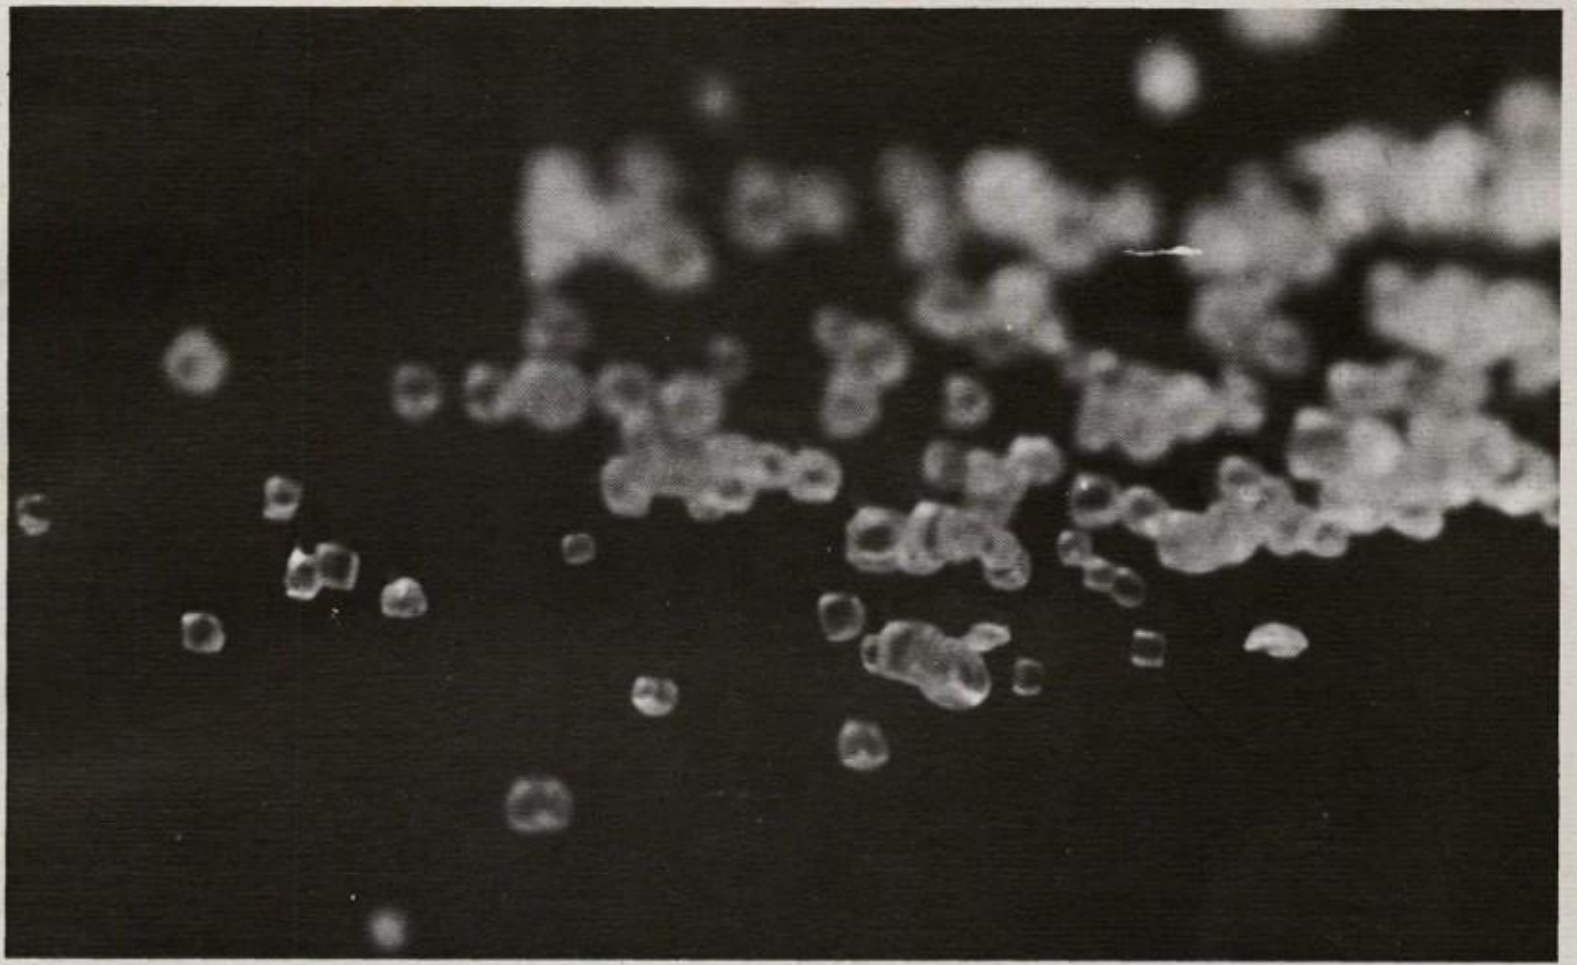

We strive to be a little different—or radically different.

Our appearances can separate us from our elders and link us with our peers.

Leaders and followers are common to every generation. The leaders try to change while the followers choose to modify.

Revolution is not destructive if the new is an improvement over the old—this is PROGRESS.

Student-Life

Gazing into the glowing embers that radiate the warmth of the present, we see sparks which can kindle the blazing fires of the future. There are flames within us, too, which send us away with a lasting glow from the undying fire of Woodstown High.

Excitement

As our excitement is aroused, it bursts into flame — but then we must hurry on.

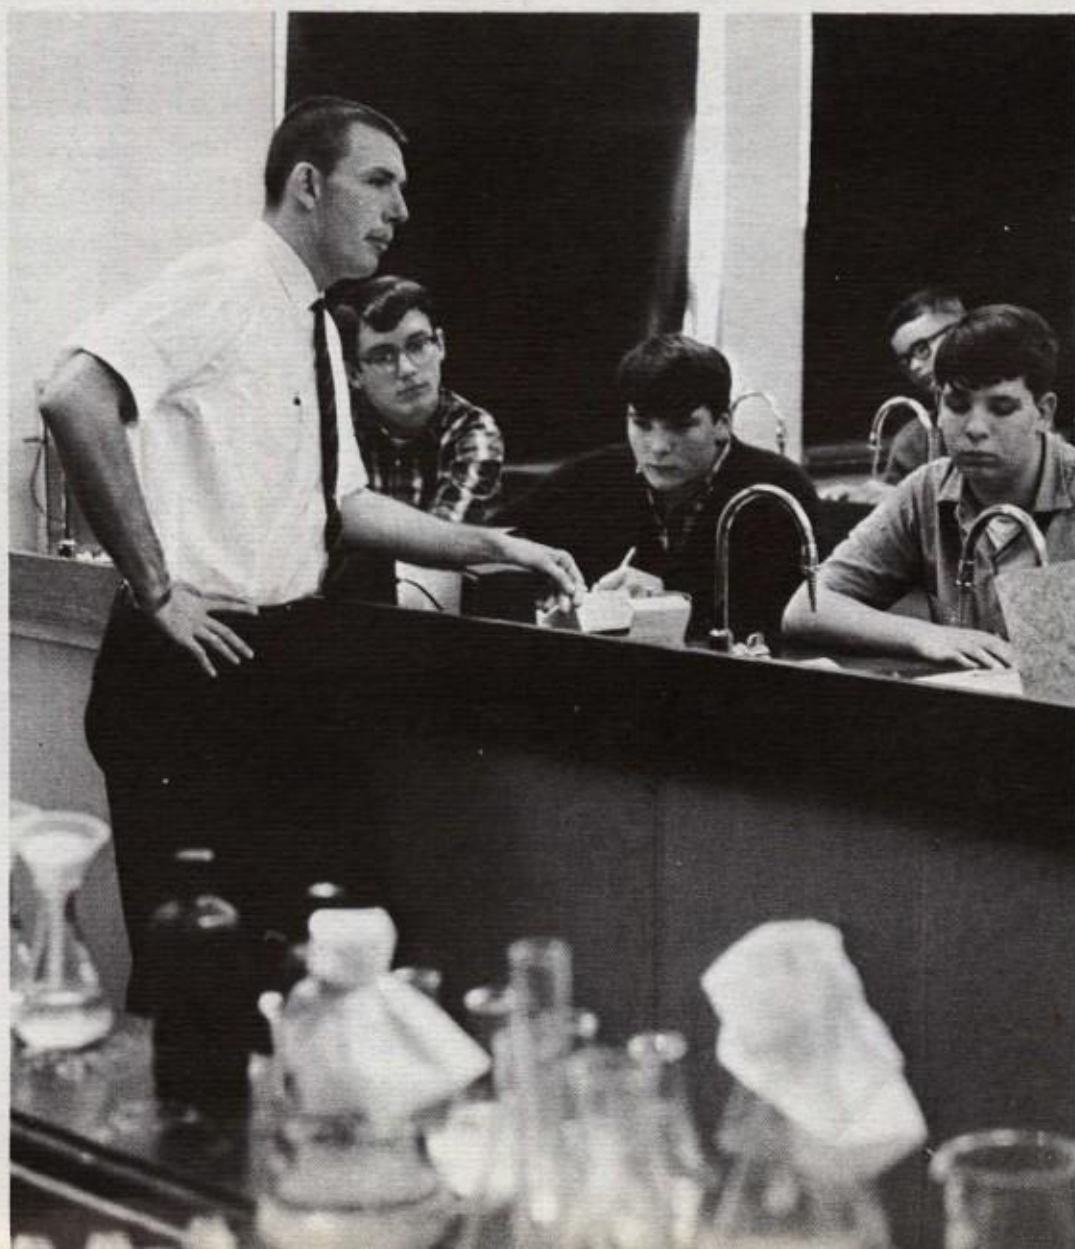

Exploration

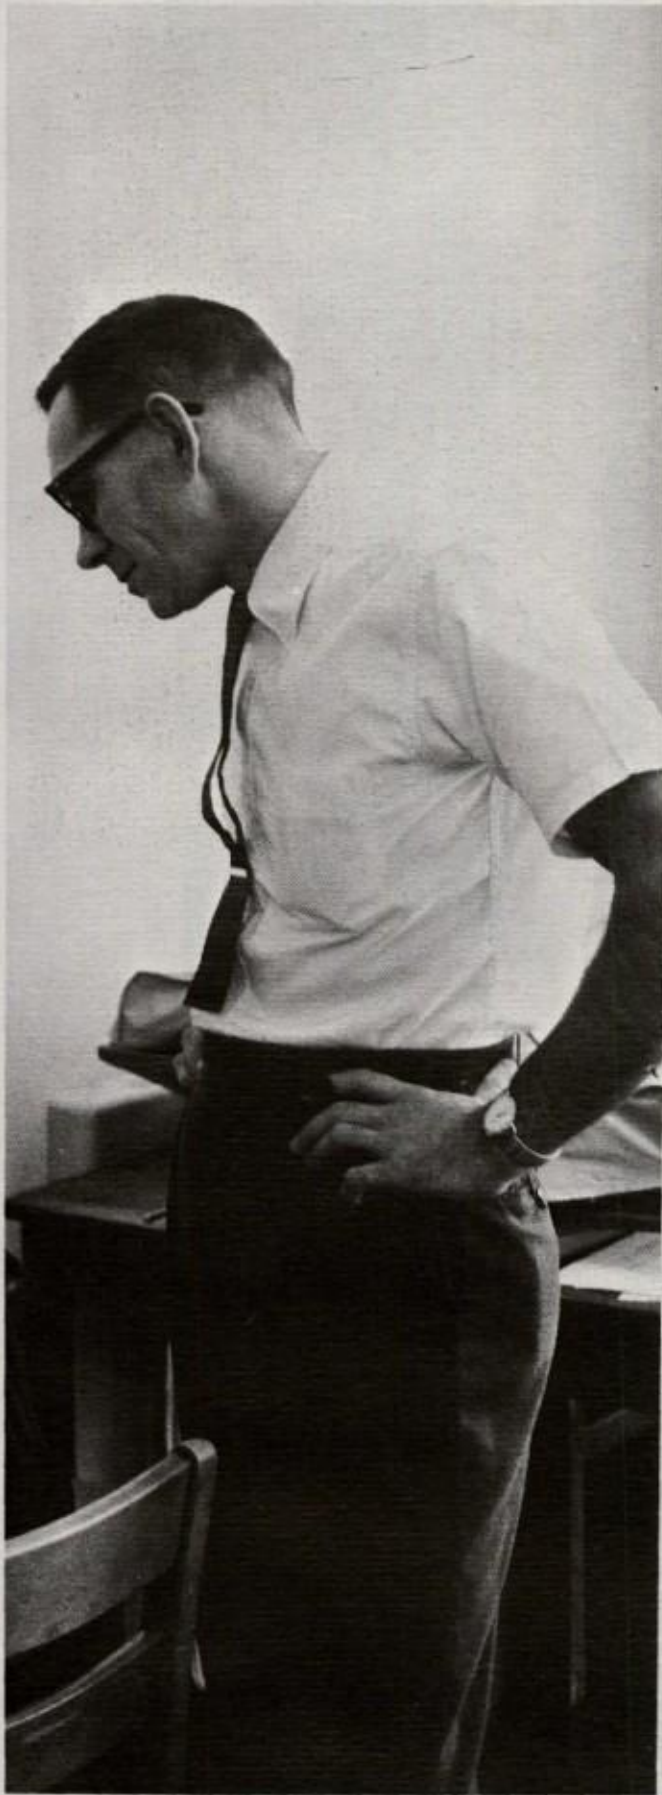

Into the past we see.
Into the future we probe, constantly searching and always learning.

Those who have the understanding can only direct us. We must find our own paths.

Anticipation
Of the new is evolution to our minds.

Relaxation

The joyous outlet of leisure is reflected in close friendships, fun, excitement, and peace of mind after a long day.

Dedication

With great admiration and respect, we of the Senior class dedicate the 1967 Woodchips to Mrs. Edith Stein in recognition of her generous devotion to our school and to us. Each of us will remember her in a different way—as a junior English teacher, as advisor of the Future Teachers of America, as a woman with a warm and wonderful personality, as a friend

Mrs. Stein's classes are not only groups of students to be taught and tested; they are, rather, a collection of individuals who are personally guided to future success. In this manner, Mrs. Stein has won the respect of us all. This admiration will last well beyond our high school years.

Thus, this dedication can be but a small token of our appreciation for what she has done.

The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards.

—Anatole France

Faculty

Do you see that ray glowing in the darkness?

It was the light we followed.
That one gleam of brightness led us forward.

Look!

Do you see it?

A star.

A warm glow of understanding . . .

A smile . . .

The flame is ahead . . .

We struggle,

But a hand is there for guidance.

Administration provides the guidelines which direct us to a clear future.

Tremendous and exciting changes have taken place during your Woodstown High School years. Many of these changes have been of a physical nature and may be ticked off as one moves around our buildings and grounds. Other, not so obvious but possibly more important, changes have taken place in curriculum, staff, organization, and policy. Education needs to be dynamic. Change is necessary, not just for the sake of change itself, but to effectively meet the challenges that are here and just around the corner. To you, who have been very much a part of and, in reality, the purpose of our changes, I offer congratulation and felicitation as you move on to accept the challenges of a constantly changing environment.

SUPERINTENDENT

To the Class of 1967:

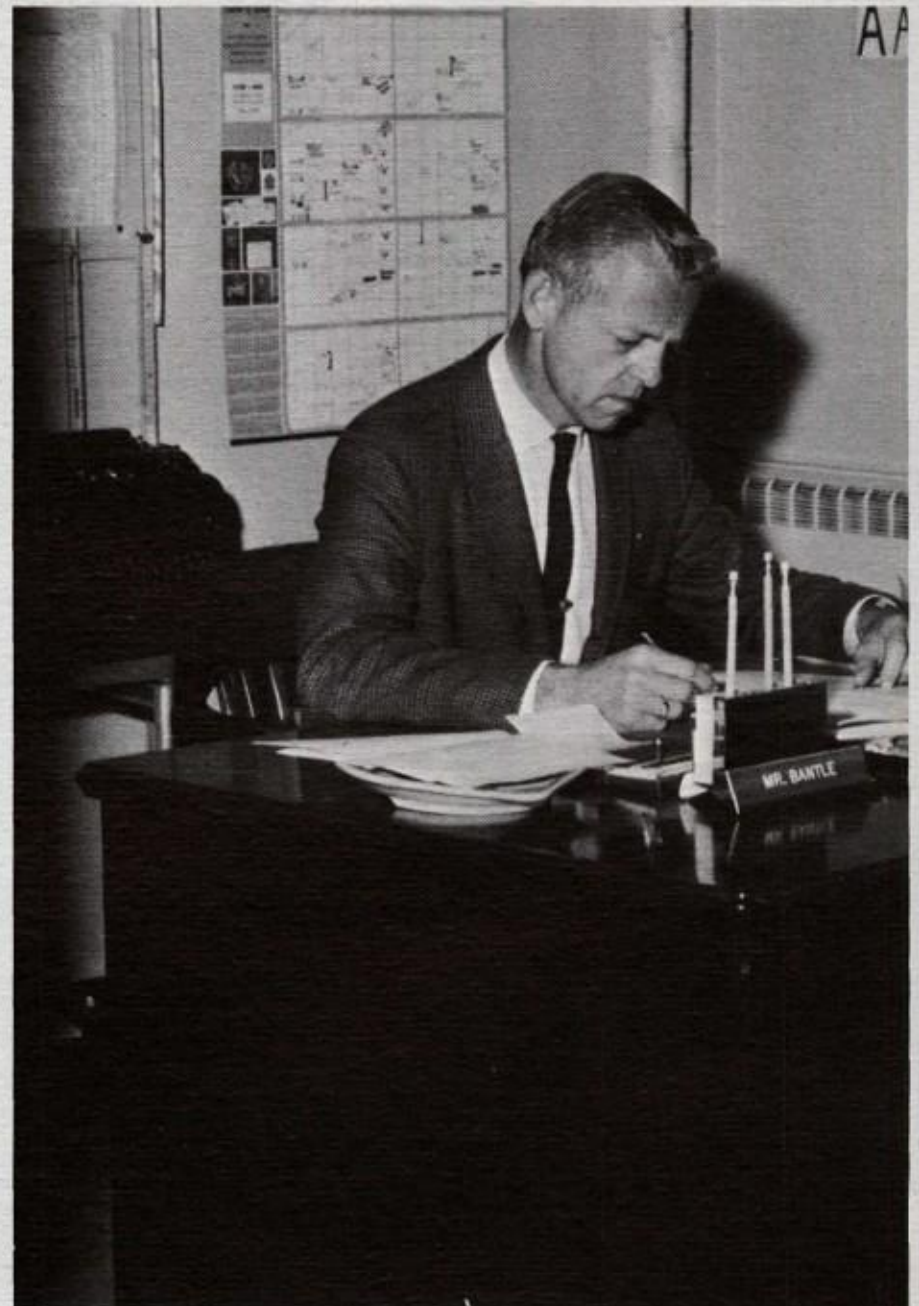

Take Time to Work—It is the Secret of Success
 Take Time to Think—It is the Source of Power
 Take Time to Read—It is the Foundation of Wisdom
 Take Time to Play—It is the Secret of Perpetual Youth
 Take Time to Be Friendly—It is the Road to Happiness
 Take Time to Dream—It is Hitching your Wagon to a Star
 Take Time to Laugh—It is the Music of the Soul
 Take Time to Love and Be Loved—
 It is the Privilege of the Gods
 Take Time to Look Around—
 It is too Short a Day to be Selfish.

The Premise of Change

The great potential of today's youth rests upon our ability to accept CHANGE.

While change in itself does not necessarily signify progress—progress is not possible without it.

Where change exists—challenge remains. Let this quality of our youth continue to be that which is so necessary in a democracy.

Darkness . . . then light,
A child emerges from its mother's womb.
The first breath,
Then a future drifts before him.
Now he runs, hurdling each step
With youthful eagerness.
But now a new light glows ahead Never a child again, for he Walks stable now . . . almost an adult.
But still peering through a rainbow,
To seek a gleaming future worth a pot of gold.

The athletes and musicians of the senior class . .
the spirit of '67

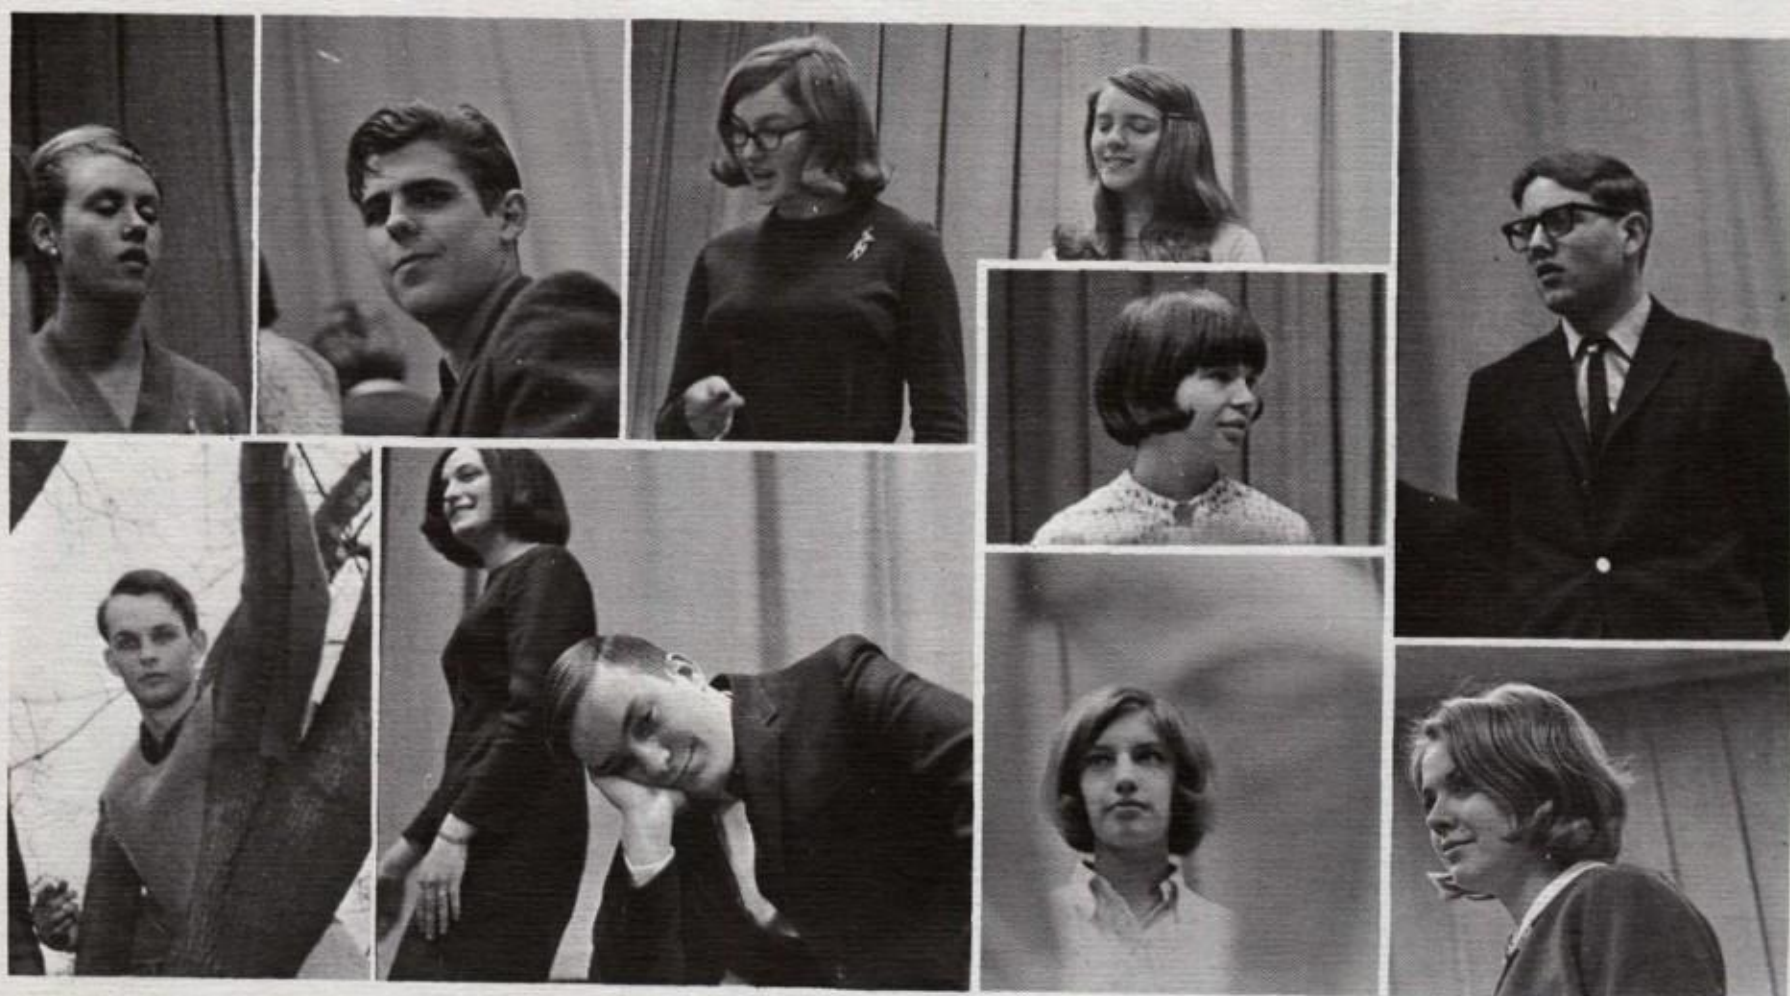

American Field Service

From other lands they come to learn, and in their learning new understandings are molded. Although they were once strangers, Akio and Beto will long be remembered by the class of 1967 as two of our best friends.

UNDERCLASSMEN

How does a school grow? It grows through the efforts of its students. The majority of these students are underclassmen, still growing and accustoming themselves to high school life.

Our Town

"Our Town" by Thornton Wilder ... a tradition remade—first Senior class play in nine years ... cultivating New Hampshire accents takes time and practice ... "Oh, isn't it a lovely wedding?" ... tearful third act.

Mrs. Jane Hopkins, director
Jamie Fuller, student director
Charles Gardner, stage manager

Tom Figlio,
Stage manager

The Ghost of a Chance

"The Ghost of a Chance" ... romances and confusion ... the spring comedy ... director Booth R. Wooten, Sr. and assistant, Mrs. Betty Jones.

Mr. Booth Wooten, Sr., Director

STUDENT DIRECTORS—Dwayne Bell, Donna McAllister, and Bob Quattlebaum

Sports

As the spectators cram the bleachers in anticipation of the oncoming game, our voices surge upward with joy as our team marches on toward triumph—or plunge into gloomy tones as our opponents seize the lead. But even should victory not be gained, sportsmanship is the goal.

1917

of Salem County high school students have contributed to our success

Establishment of Du Pont's pioneer organic chemicals industry at Deepwater Point in 1917 opened new career opportunities for a host of Salem County's young people, several generations of whom have contributed to the success of this plant and, in return, have shared the fruits of their productivity.

Fifty years ago, a scholastic education wasn't as essential to getting a job as it is today. With good physique, normal intelligence and character, most any mature male could find some form of work for a livelihood. However, even then, high school and college graduates held the advantage in job selection and progression.

As industrial techniques became more sophisticated, and pressure of expanding population created greater competition for jobs, the need for advance preparation in education and skills has increased. Today, a high school diploma is a primary requirement for novice job applicants at Chambers Works.

Now entering its second half-century, Chambers Works will continue to look upon the graduating classes of Salem County high schools as a major source of future employees, male and female, for non-technical positions and (with college degrees) for technical posts. Thus we urge the young people of this area to make the most of their development opportunities through high school at least and through college, if at all possible.

Note

Du Pont is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The Company's policy is to hire and promote qualified candidates for available job openings without discrimination in respect to race, creed, color, sex or origin.

Dear Ande,-
Best wishes for a nice life & things of pleasure.
your friend
Walter B. Lippincott

Ande,
Best wishes for a very happy and successful future. Work hard in school and learn all you can - never stop learning! Take your time in life and be sure to enjoy it. Look for enjoyment in the small things in life that are so very important to our happiness and well being. I hope all your hopes and dreams will be fulfilled.

Sincerely,
Kathy

Best wishes

Close losses to Kingsway for girls' basketball team ... records and two championships for track team ... winning intramural teams—Dare-town, Wakuna, and Henry's Untouchables ... three wins for girls in tennis, one for new boys' team ... third place basketball team ... high morale but long losing streaks for baseball boys.

Steps, steps, and more steps ... different couples at every stop ... student volunteers for night watchmen ... herded from one place to the next, then back to the HOT SHOPPE! ... live statue at the Wax Museum ... "Good morning! It's 6:45!"

Washington Trip

"Ebb Tide" ... queen Alice Garrison ... long, pastel gowns ... the Purs'waders ... sneakers at the Afterglow? ... tired goodnights after a long evening.

Junior-Senior Prom

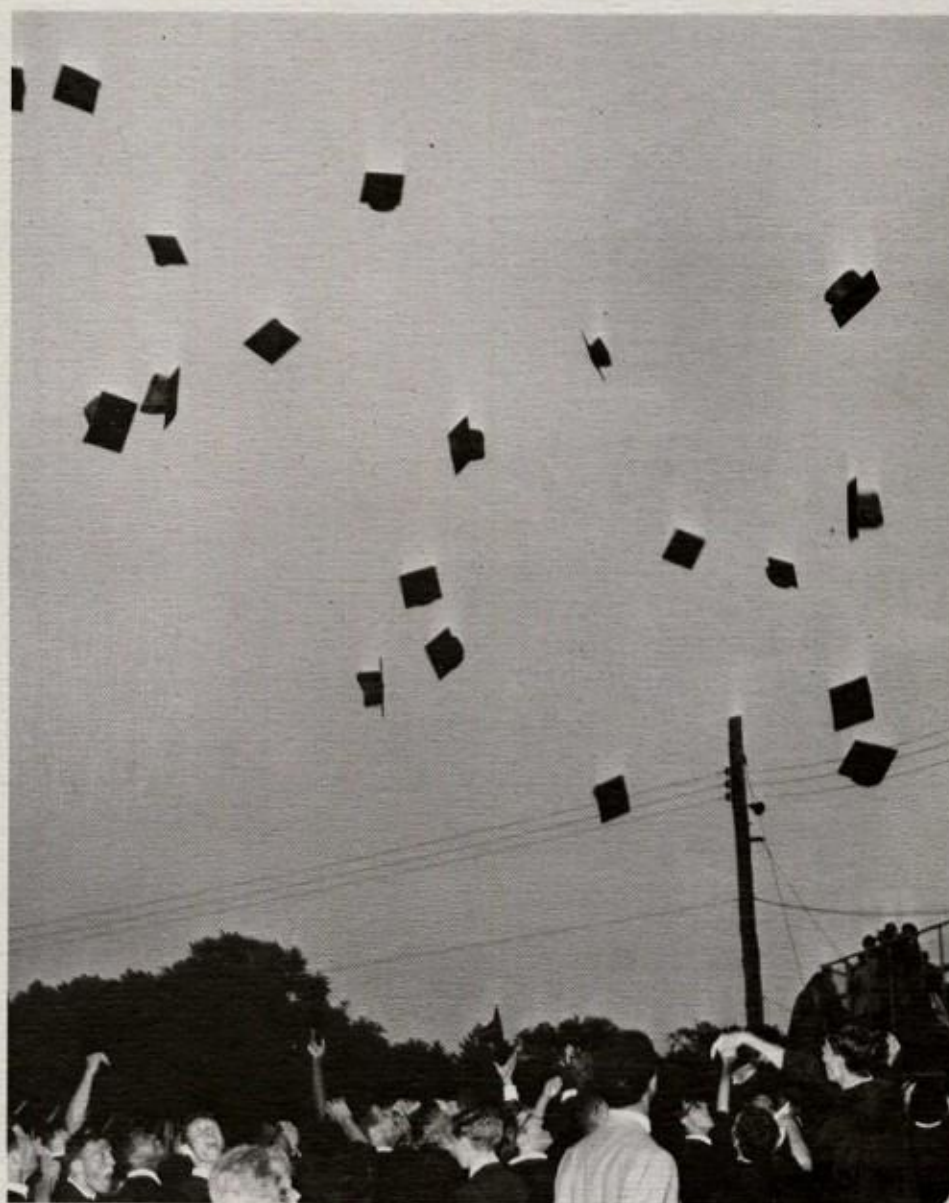

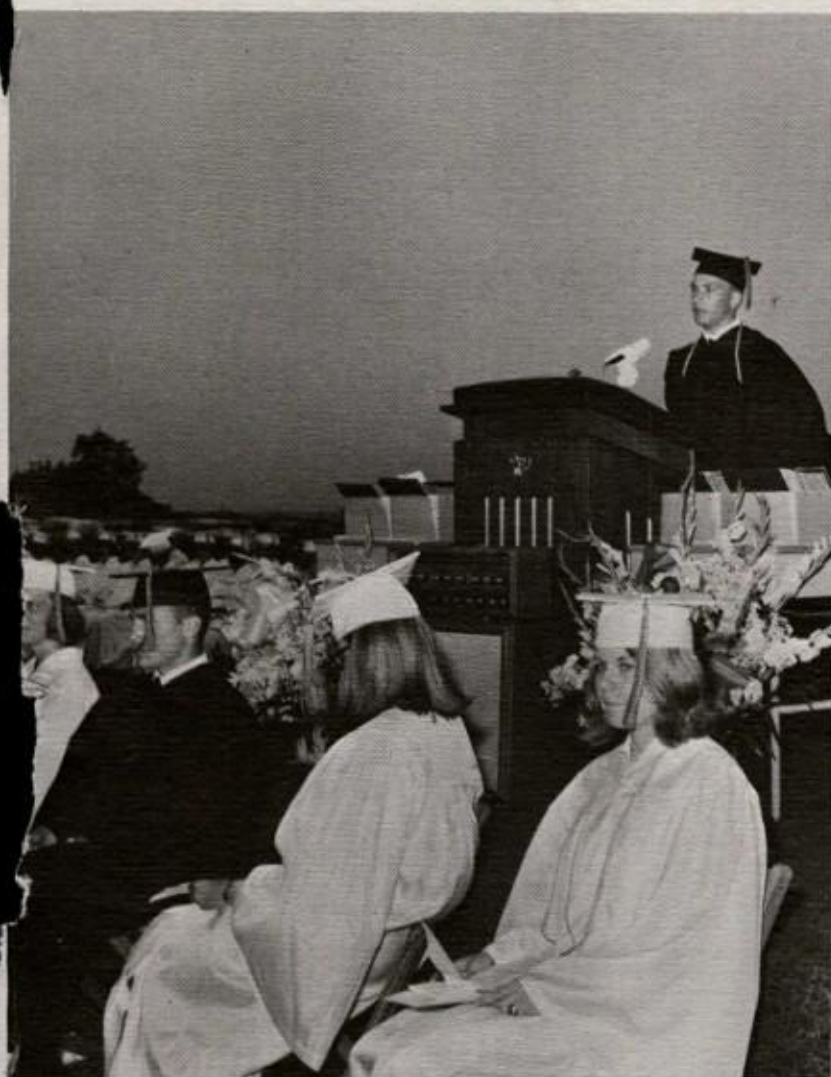

Commencement

Practices in the hot sun ... new approach to Baccalaureate with Rev. Dave Bailey—KISS ... solemn procession to "Pomp and Circumstance" ... the turbulent world ... impending rain and a cold wind ... Rev. John Robbins Hart, Ph.D. ... parties and a farewell to Akio and Beto ... and, of course, tears.

BE SURE YOU ARE INSIDE AND STICK IN BACK OF YEARBOOK
